Directions: Answer the following questions and fill in the blanks while watching the video "How I Learn: Ages & Stages of Child Development."

1. Name four reasons infants cry.
   a. ________  b. ________  c. ________  d. ________

2. What is an infant’s first big milestone?

3. Intellectually, 1 to 3-month old infants are gathering ________. Socially, they like to follow people and objects with their ________. By 4 to 6 months, they ________ a lot, gurgle and imitate ________. They figure out that their ________ and ________ are attached. They can ________ things, ________ if propped and put things in their ________.

4. What do adults do to stimulate interaction with infants?

5. Infants 7 to 12 months old are more ________. They ________ and crawl, pull themselves up to standing and some even ________. They can remember what they like to ________ and ________. They know who they are in the ________.

6. Stranger shyness comes from separating the ________ from the ________.

7. Good toys for this age are household ________.

8. Between 7 and 12 months an infant begins to know his/her own ________, understand many ________ and starts to ________.
9. ______ (ages 1 to 2) are busy growing up. They like to ______ others, help with ______ and ______ and are proud of the things they can ________.

10. Describe the parallel play of toddlers.

11. Give an example of a make-believe activity that toddlers enjoy.

12. A favorite word of the toddler is ________.

13. Although they like to learn new things, the 2 to 3-year-old child gets ________ when something is too hard.

14. What skills are particularly developing?
   ______ fine motor skills ______ large motor skills

15. What is the common favorite word of the 3 to 5-year-old child?

16. What kinds of actions do 3 to 5-year-olds find particularly funny?

17. Because of their increased attention span, what are some things 3 to 5-year-olds like to do?

18. The school-age child (ages 5-8) is beginning the process of figuring out what they ______ and ________ and their ______ in the world around them.

19. List the four ways children develop. Give an example of each.